Community Services

Find support in your area

Community Resource Centres

Community Resource Centres (CRCs) are welcoming places where community members can meet for activities and get support from friendly staff.

They reflect the needs and goals of their own community

Libraries

Libraries are in the local community and offer free services to the public. They support digital inclusion through free WiFi, computers, and printing (paid or free). You can also book a librarian for assistance.

WACONnect

WACONnect is a directory of community service organisations that provide financial and material support in WA. Find search results for emergency relief services with contact numbers, operating hours, and directions. Or call the Emergency Relief and Food Access Service directly at

Free WiFi Locations

This map shows free WiFi locations in Perth CBD (Central Business District). You will need a device (smartphone or laptop) to access them. For WiFi locations outside the CBD, check our CRC and Library databases.
